

LEN GOODMAN

Len Goodman is known to millions of people all over the world as Head Judge of Strictly Come Dancing, a popular prime time TV show and also Head Judge on the USA version – Dancing With The Stars. His vast knowledge of Ballroom and Latin American Dancing, which he has gained over a lifetime of competing, judging and teaching all over the world, has made him one of the most popular judges both in the UK and USA.

Len is a Life Member and Examiner for the National Association of Teachers of Dance, as well as Life Member of other Dance Teaching Associations. He is also an Adjudicator for the World Dance Council and British Dance Council.

He has made numerous appearances on various T V and radio shows and has recently become successful in presenting his own shows, with his unique wit and humour.

Len has received various Awards in the UK, including two Carl Allen Awards, one of which was a Life Achievement Award for the work he has done in dancing and the other for his contribution to Freestyle Dancing. His work on Dancing With The Stars and Strictly Come Dancing has assisted with these programmes being nominated and receiving various Awards by the Television and Entertainment industry.

In recent years Len was also nominated for a Primetime Emmy Award for his work on Dancing With The Stars.

Len Goodman is one of the most popular and well respected characters in the dance fraternity and has travelled in the past, all over world lecturing, teaching and judging.
