

LESLIE FERRAR

Leslie Ferrar, CVO BSc FCA, read Chemistry at Durham University, having completed her higher education at Woldingham School.

She joined KPMG, the accounting firm, where she qualified and subsequently became a partner in their tax practice in 1988. She was responsible for various areas of tax in the UK, then ran the International Expatriate Tax practice globally and was a member of the International Board of the tax practice. During her time with KPMG she undertook an executive education programme at Harvard Business School.

In 2005, she was asked to join the Household of HRH The Prince of Wales as Treasurer to TRH The Prince of Wales and The Duchess of Cornwall, Prince William and Prince Harry. During this time, Leslie was a Trustee of The Prince of Wales' Charitable Foundation, and of Dumfries House, and was also a director of several companies including Duchy Originals. In 2012, Leslie left HRH the Prince of Wales, although she still works for TRH Princes William and Harry and is a member of the Buckingham Palace Audit Committee. She is now a non-executive director of several companies and charities, including HMRC, Penna Consulting Limited, The Roman Catholic Diocese of Westminster and Breakthrough Breast Cancer.

Leslie is married, lives in London and her passion is skiing. She qualified as a ski instructor in Austria in 2012.
